2. Open Immersive Society orientation

iLEAD adopts an open society orientation grounded in the belief that complex, high-impact fields such as immersive learning require:

- plural perspectives,
- transparent reasoning,
- public accountability, and
- mechanisms for ongoing correction.

Openness, in this context, is not a rhetorical stance or a default absence of boundaries. It is a designed condition—one that must be actively maintained through structure, norms, and stewardship.

Revision #1
Created 14 January 2026 02:35:04 by Jonathon Richter
Updated 14 January 2026 02:35:50 by Jonathon Richter